5 Language and visa requirements

5.1 The primary language used on our programmes is English and our programmes may involve a considerable amount of 'business' vocabulary and reference to technical subjects, as well as group discussion and interaction. To achieve the greatest benefit from our programmes, and to be able to participate fully, applicants are expected to have a good command of both written and spoken English.

5.2 You are responsible for checking an applicant's visa requirements and ensuring that their visa application is submitted in sufficient time to avoid incurring any transfer or cancellation fees.

5.3 Only upon receipt by us of payment of the full fee will requests for visa invitation letters be actioned by our admissions team. Visa invitation letters are issued to in the name of your named applicant only and in our standard format.

6 Your obligations to us

6.1 Applicants are required to show respect and courtesy to fellow participants, faculty and staff.

6.2 The applicant is required to comply with all ownership, copyright and related rights in any programme materials or other information provided to the applicant, and to keep all such information confidential where it is not already in the public domain. In addition, you or the applicant will not use the Cambridge Judge Business School or University of Cambridge logos or trade mark or, take video or audio recordings of the programmes. Applicants may take photographs for their own personal use.

6.3 Applicants are required to prepare thoroughly for a programme and any of its activities and to attend all timetabled sessions on time and for the complete duration of the programme.

6.4 You are required to pay all personal accounts and expenditure incurred during the programme (e.g. extra meals, drinks, taxis, newspapers) no later than at the end of the programme.

7 Our obligations to you

7.1 We will endeavour to deliver the programme as published on our website www.jbs.cam.ac.uk/execed/open, but we are continually improving and developing our programmes and facilities and it may be necessary to alter some characteristics of the programme. Characteristics include but not limited to the timetable, faculty, content, format, delivery and location of a programme. Any such alteration and the reasons for such alteration will be notified to you in writing as soon as possible.

8 Transfers to a later programme

8.1 Applicants may transfer to a later session of the same programme or a different programme (provided that applicants fulfil the admissions criteria for that programme and you pay any difference in the fee applicable) subject to availability and provided the programme is completed within twelve (12) months of the original programme booked. In order to request a transfer, you must send a written request at least twenty eight (28) days prior to the start date of the original programme to avoid paying a transfer fee.

8.2 If a written request to transfer is received twenty seven (27) days or less before the start date of the original programme and there is availability a transfer fee will be payable as follows:

For residential programmes	15% of the original programme fee
Non-residential programmes	10% of the original programme fee

9 Cancellation

9.1 If you wish to cancel an applicants place on a residential programme (where accommodation is included as part of the programme fee) 8 weeks or less before the start of the programme, you must request this in writing and the following cancellation charges will apply:

2 weeks or less before a programme	50% of the programme fee
If no formal cancellation is made but the applicant fails to attend or withdraws following the commencement of the programme	100% of the programme fee

9.1 In some circumstances it may be necessary for us to cancel a published programme. We will try and give applicants as much notice as possible and, excluding exceptional circumstances, this would not be less than 14 days before the start of the programme. In the event we do cancel a programme we will refund any fees paid but we do not accept any other liability incurred by applicants in connection with the cancellation. Where possible we will endeavour to transfer applicants to an alternative programme. This is subject to alternative programme availability, the applicant meeting the relevant admissions criteria and payment of any difference in fees that may be applicable.

9.2 An applicant's application or place on a programme may be cancelled by us at any time at our discretion if an applicant is in breach of any of these terms and conditions.

10 Confidentiality

10.1 We keep all information about an applicant's progress on a programme confidential and do not share this information with any third party including you.

11 Data protection

11.1 You acknowledge that JBS Executive Education Limited is registered as a data controller under the Data Protection Act 1998 and you hereby agree that we may process all personal information and data about applicants for programme preparation and delivery, internal market research, participant and alumni administration, accounting, record-keeping, health and safety and any other reasonable purpose relating to our relationship with applicants and alumni.

11.2 We may write to or email applicants with information about our products and services. We will not pass on these details to third parties. If applicants do not wish to receive future communications from us, with the exception of the closing communications which we routinely send out at the end of a programme, please indicate this on the application form.
