Overview

Cambridge Judge Business School provides a number of scholarships and bursaries to MBA students each year. We have grouped these into the following categories:

Scholarships for:

- sector of work experience
- women only
- academic achievement
- nationality
- CJBS bursaries.

All scholarships and bursaries are awarded before the start of the academic year. No funds can be awarded after the School year has started, and candidates should not make financial plans assuming that they will receive funds after they have started the programme.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT
The Boustany Foundation MBA Scholarship

The Boustany Foundation MBA Scholarship to the University of Cambridge is granted once every two years for a 12-month programme leading to an MBA. The Boustany Foundation will pay financial aid amounting to £23,000 towards tuition fees. In addition travel & accommodation expenses related to the internship will be covered by the Foundation. It is offered to outstanding and highly meriting candidates of all nationalities; a priority will be given to Lebanese nationals.

Do I qualify for the Boustany Foundation Scholarship?

Recipients must have an excellent academic background and have also enjoyed considerable success in their careers to date. Candidates must fulfil the admission requirements of Cambridge Judge Business School to be eligible for the scholarship; they will need to demonstrate a high intellectual potential, leadership, ambition and a strong sense of ethics.

Candidates need to have accepted an offer of admission from the Cambridge MBA programme in order to be considered for this scholarship.

Applying

Candidates in receipt of an offer of admissions from the Cambridge MBA should please apply directly to the Boustany Foundation.

Further details

The scholarship recipient is required to complete a summer internship at the end of the programme, carrying no salary, with the Boustany Foundation.

Please visit the Boustany Foundation website for further details.
St Catharine’s Benavitch Scholarship

Thanks to a generous bequest from the late Maurice and Natalie Benavitch, St Catharine’s offers up to five scholarships worth £10,000 to outstanding Cambridge MBA candidates. The scholarships are awarded on the basis of merit and are intended for candidates who will become leaders in the practice or study of management and business.

Recipients of the Benavitch Scholarships will become members of St Catharine’s College, which was founded in 1473 and is situated in the centre of Cambridge, approximately five minutes’ walk from Cambridge Judge Business School. They will become members of the College’s Middle Combination Room, which is the society for graduate students of the College.

Do I qualify for a St Catharine’s Benavitch Scholarship?

- First class degree, GPA above 3.7 (out of 4) or equivalent from a recognised university
- Minimum GMAT score of 700
- Three years’ full-time post-graduation work experience

Candidates need to have accepted an offer of admission from the Cambridge MBA programme by 27 February 2018, and specified St Catharine’s as their top college preference. You will need to be a member of St Catharine’s in order to be considered for this scholarship.

Applying

If you want to be considered for the St Catharine’s Benavitch Scholarship, you must apply to the Cambridge MBA programme by 27 February 2018.

Following the interview, if an offer is made to you, please inform the MBA Admissions Team that you would like to apply for St Catharine’s college and submit a 300 word essay outlining the contribution you expect to make to business and society in the future.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR SECTOR OF WORK EXPERIENCE
The Sainsbury Bursary Scheme

The Sainsbury Bursary Scheme provides Cambridge MBA bursaries for students from the charitable or voluntary sectors who need financial aid to help fund their MBAs. There are up to five awards each year, worth either £14,000 or £28,000 towards the cost of the MBA fees.

Do I qualify for a Sainsbury Bursary?

We are looking for intelligent and highly motivated candidates committed to a career within the charitable or voluntary sectors. Preference will be given to UK citizens currently working in the UK, but exceptional non-UK candidates working for international organisations will be considered. In all cases it is expected that successful recipients will continue to contribute to the charitable or voluntary sectors in the UK after completion of the MBA. All candidates for the bursaries must have:

- At least three years' work experience within the charitable or voluntary sectors prior to submitting their application.
- Strong support from their employer, or evidence of an on-going commitment to the charitable or voluntary sectors.
- A clear idea of how they would use the skills and knowledge gained on the MBA programme to develop their career within the charitable or voluntary sectors.

Candidates need to have accepted an offer of admission from the Cambridge MBA programme by 4 May 2018.

Applying

If you want to be considered for the Sainsbury Bursary, you must apply to the Cambridge MBA programme by 4 May 2018.

Following the interview, if an offer is made to you, please submit a one-page essay to the MBA Admissions Team explaining why you think you should be considered for a Sainsbury Bursary (see eligibility criteria above).
