Cambridge Judge Business School (CJBS) provides a number of scholarships and bursaries to MBA students each year. We have grouped these into the following categories:

Scholarships for:

- Academic achievement
- Sector of work experience
- Women
- Nationality
- LGBTQ+ community
- CJBS bursaries

All scholarships and bursaries are awarded before the start of the academic year.

No funds can be awarded after the School year has started, and candidates should not make financial plans assuming that they will receive funds after they have started the programme.

How to apply for CJBS Scholarships

Only candidates who are invited for an MBA admissions interview on campus or via Skype will be invited to apply for scholarships for which they are eligible. Applications for these scholarships are made via video using the Kira Talent platform.

When you complete your online application, you will be asked to indicate which scholarships you would like to apply for. If we contact you to invite you for interview, you will be sent the details of how to access the scholarship application portal and how to submit your video application for the relevant scholarship.

You will be required to submit your video application before you come for your interview – that period will normally be two to three weeks after receiving your interview invitation. You will be informed of the outcome of your scholarship application around the same time as receiving the outcome decision of your MBA application interview, should an offer be given.

Important: Cambridge Judge Business School scholarships are not offered in every round, so please read this document carefully to understand the deadlines for each scholarship.

Summary

- Only candidates who are invited to interview for the MBA will be invited to submit a scholarship application
- All CJBS scholarship applications will be submitted via video essay
- Decisions on scholarship applications will be given around the same time as decisions on MBA application i.e. within three weeks of your interview
- CJBS scholarships are not offered in every MBA application round, so please check this document carefully.
