

JOB TITLE: SENIOR CUSTODIAN

REPORTS TO: SENIOR BUILDING SERVICES TECHNICIAN

Background

Cambridge Judge Business School (CJBS) is a provider of world-class business education in the form of its MBA and Executive MBA programmes, MPhil programmes as well as the PhD programme and some undergraduate teaching. The Business School has an extensive Executive Education programme as well as a number of centres. There is a large and growing events calendar with many conferences, speakers and other networking events taking place in the evenings and at the weekends.

Cambridge Judge Business School is comprised of multiple sites, including the Simon Sainsbury Centre, the Old Addenbrooke's Building, and Keynes House. Behind the façade of the original Addenbrooke's Hospital, the interior of the building is a dramatic and modern design which presents challenges to the Facilities Team. The Business School has office accommodation, five lecture theatres, 10 seminar and meeting rooms, a dedicated dining room, a common room providing a social and meeting space as well as student project and syndicate rooms, an information centre, and a computer lab. The Business School also occupies all floors of the neighbouring Keynes House along with five houses in Trumpington Street.

All users of the Business School have high expectations, which if not met can result in a decline in our reputation and a loss of revenue.

The role holder is part of the Facilities team, who manage the building and provides all central services to the Business School and its staff, students, and guests. In total there are 800 regular authorised users of the buildings who always have access (365 days a year, 24 hours a day). The figure of 800 does not include delegates attending conferences, meetings, and Executive Education events at the Business School. Cambridge Judge's current plans for growth and development have a considerable impact on the Facilities team with the resulting additional pressure on existing facilities and services.
